Dispute Resolution

Our services in Luxembourg

Helping you to assert and enforce your rights

It is common knowledge that the best legal dispute is the one that does not even start. For cost reasons and due to time constraints, it is often better to finish a dispute between contractual partners by means of an amicable settlement. However, in many cases this is impossible or does not correspond to the parties' interests. Initiating litigation or defence in court is then unavoidable.

Our experts advise and represent domestic and international clients at every level of the Luxembourg civil, commercial and criminal courts in a broad range of complex disputes, particularly in relation to our established practice area: Corporate/M&A Law.
